

Contents

- 4 STAN'S SAFARI No15
Stan explores the relationship between drive unit area and the quality of bass reproduction
- 7 LETTER FROM SHENZHEN
Peter Comeau, based in China, describes how the Far East has become the engine of hi-fi growth
- 9 SERBLIN'S STATEMENT
Franco Serblin headed Sonus Faber for many years. Now independent, he's introduced a speaker under his own name
- 12 LISTENING TO STORAGE
Computer audio can be as fickle as analogue, as Andrew Harrison discovers when comparing different hard and solid state drives

Townshend Glastonbury Pre -1, page 20

- 15 PRE-EVOLUTION
Pre-amp design is constantly evolving, but PM still searches in vain for the ultimate combination of features and sound quality.
- 17 ULTIMATE PASSIVITY
Transformer technology can set the best sound quality agenda for high end system control
- 22 TRADING PLACES
The patterns, trends and dubious practices that affect the way hi-fi is marketed and sold
- 25 ROBERT KODA'S TAKUMI K-70
The unusual 3-box configuration helps create an outstanding stereo power amplifier
- 28 THE RAAL DEAL
Chris Binns isn't the only audiophile who considers this Serbian ribbon one of the very best HF units around

- 30 CROSSOVER RESISTOR SOUND
Even this relatively passive component can affect the sound of a loudspeaker
- 32 ULTIMATE EXPOSURE
All too easily overlooked, Exposure's 'high end' MCX system well deserves close attention
- 37 EMINENT LFT-8b
Jason Kennedy tries out an interesting hybrid panel speaker from the USA
- 39 THE RHYTHM KING PART 2
The second and concluding part of our feature on a radical BMR-based DIY speaker project
- 43 ABBINGDON'S BEST SHOT
Stan Curtis tries out AMR's top CD-77 CD player, which doubles as a top class DAC
- 46 TOURAJ'S TOP TURNTABLE
Under continuous development for nearly twenty years, Roksan's signature TMS 3 remains very much 'work in progress'
- 48 VERY NEAT INDEED
A five-driver stand-mount is a rarity, but Neat's Ultimatum XLS nonetheless makes plenty of sense
- 50 BITS & PIECES
Short reports on interesting items from Arcam, Vita Audio and Synergistic Research
- 53 EMITT WHO?
Paul Darwin looks at the musical career of the man who was dubbed 'the one man Beatles'
- 55 THE BEST OF CLASSICAL
Colin Anderson picks some more recent classical music releases
- 58 ROCK, POP & OTHER NICE MUSIC
Nigel Finn selects half a dozen new rock/pop releases
- 60 SUBJECTIVE SOUNDS
Introducing the Rubikon, an LP12 upgrade that's half the price of a Keel. And KEF's Blade is now a commercial reality.

Serblin's Statement on page 9

Eminent LFT-8b, page 37