

Contents

---

2 EDITORIAL

Why are there no perfect amplifiers yet?

4 THE NEXT NEXT BIG THING

US correspondent Wes Phillips takes a critical look at hi-fi writing on the interweb

8 DRM – OR HOW TO ALIENATE YOUR CUSTOMERS

Recording engineer Tony Faulkner looks at the mess created by Digital Rights Management

11 MAGNET SOUND

Martin Colloms wonders whether we've become used to the distortions of low cost ferrites

14 TUNING & TWEAKING (Part 2)

Which accessories will actually improve the sound of your system? Chris Bryant unearths the occasional winner

18 THE FINCHAM INTERVIEW

Laurie Fincham talks to Malcolm Steward about a lifetime in loudspeaker design

22 DIGITAL AMPLIFIERS – MAGIC OR MYTH?

Martin Colloms examines four Class D 'switching' amplifiers. Are they really hi-fi?

35 DIGIAMP FEEDBACK

Leading hi-fi designers contribute their own experiences with digital amplification

37 ROKSAN XERXES.20

How good is the latest version of Roksan's Xerxes? Paul Messenger gives it a spin

39 KEF REFERENCE 201/2

A radical new Uni-Q driver has led to a new Reference range of KEF speakers. Martin Colloms investigates

44 THE BEST OF CLASSICAL

Christopher Breunig chooses the pick of recent classical releases

48 ROCK, POP AND OTHER NICE MUSIC

Nigel Finn searches his local record shop for good music from around the world

52 SUBJECTIVE SOUNDS

Paul Messenger finds a real bargain in big loudspeakers

Laurie Fincham talks to Malcolm Steward
on page 18

