

Contents

- 4 JAMES JOHNSON-FLINT AND STUART GEORGE
The brains behind Cambridge Audio explain the company's success, and plans for its future development
- 8 STAN'S SAFARI
Stan Curtis understands the booming interest in vintage equipment, if not the prices – he offers some buying hints
- 10 dCS ROSSINI APEX DAC
Martin Colloms gets to grips with the latest version of the British company's network DAC, and finds it transformed
- 15 HiFi ROSE RA 180
Hot on the heels of the Korean company's network products comes its first amplifier: and it's as innovative within as it's apparently bonkers on the outside
- 19 PRO-JECT X8 AND DS3 B
The latest addition to the massive Pro-Ject turntable range is balanced record players and phono stages. Ed Selley takes a listen
- 22 KIMBER NAKED CABLE
Martin listens to the American company's stripped-back interconnect, and discovers that less really can be more
- 24 LISTENING IN COLOUR
The stereo image has been a subject of much controversy – Keith Howard wonders whether we can examine it in visual terms, and how that can help us understand it
- 28 DOUBLE DENON
The Japanese company has just launched two new amplifiers – the PMA-900HNE and the PMA-1700NE. Andrew Everard brings them together to compare and contrast
- 32 ACOUSTIC ENERGY AE509
Chris Kelly was keen to sample the British-based company's flagship range, and he wasn't disappointed by this compact floorstanding design
- 34 VITUS AUDIO RI-101 MkII
Chris Frankland is keen to listen to this big integrated amp from Denmark – if he can manage to lift it, that is!

- 36 LUMIN U2 MINI
The entry-level network transport from the Hong Kong company is a superb performer, says Andrew Everard
- 39 iFi AUDIO ZEN ONE SIGNATURE
Affordable, flexible and fine sounding, this DAC is an excellent choice for many systems
- 41 SILENT ANGEL BONN N8 AND FORESTER F1
Combine an optimised network switch with offboard linear power for an even cleaner sound, says Martin Colloms
- 42 CAYIN C9
It measures atrociously, but Keith Howard likes the way this headphone amp sounds
- 45 STREAMING ON A BUDGET
How do you set up a network audio system without spending a fortune? Steve Harris has been experimenting
- 49 PRO-JECT MAIA S3
It may be tiny, but this novel integrated amplifier is a powerful performer
- 49 COPLAND CSA70
The Danish company's entry-level integrated has Chris Kelly delighted
- 51 LEEMA ACOUSTICS STREAM IV
Want to stream music and play your CDs? Look no further than Welsh company Leema, says Andrew Everard
- 53 AURORASOUND VIDA MkII/ SILBATONE SQ-107
Chris Bryant listens to two very high-end phono stages, and is startled
- 55 LIVING VOICE AUDITORIUM R25 ANNIVERSARY
Martin Colloms delights in the sound of these remarkable British-built floorstanding loudspeakers
- 58 MUSIC
Our views on releases old and new
- 64 SOUNDSTAGE
Andrew Everard suggests some money-saving hi-fi strategies

Unusual controls front a fine integrated amp from HiFi Rose, p15

PMA-1700NE is one of two excellent Denon amp newcomers, p28

Something to celebrate – Living Voice's Anniversary speaker, p55